Announcement

THE MANITOBA RECORD SOCIETY

The Manitoba Record Society, which lists among its past publications W.L. Morton's Manitoba: The Birth of a Province and Ramsay Cook's The Dafoe-Sifton Correspondence 1919-1927, wishes to contact prospective members of the Society and to solicit proposals from scholars working on Western Canadian subjects which bear upon the record of Manitoba's past.

The Society is interested in proposals on all aspects of Manitoba's history, but particularly in northern and fur trade subjects. Volumes may include materials which transcend the boundaries of Manitoba itself, and may be from disciplinary perspectives other than that of history.

Since each volume of the Society's publications is financed by proceeds of the previous volume, membership in the Society is established by means of an advance billing system. Each member pays a yearly membership fee of $16.00. This fee includes the annual volume, and is substantially below the retail cost of the volume ($22.50). Volume V, Gateway City: Winnipeg in Documents, 1873-1913, edited with an introduction by Alan F.J. Artibise, will appear in late autumn, 1979. Volumes II, III, IV of the Manitoba Record Society are still available at a cost of $15.00 to members. Volume I is out of print.

Prospective members in the Society and scholars with proposals for future volumes are asked to write:
